

Assessment/Examination
Review Sheet
25 points

1. If the patient is conscious with no injuries you should?
2. If the patient is unconscious with injuries you should first begin with checking the scene and note anything that may indicate the cause of the injury. The next thing would be to?
3. While attending to a patient who is conscious with injuries it is important to?
4. While interviewing a bystander you want to find out key information that may help identify the proper care given. Which includes all of the following except?
5. While assessing the patient, you should notice certain skin colors these are?
6. Vital signs include?
7. Why is it important to monitor the patient's vital signs?
8. What does a patient's pulse represent?
9. When taking a patient's pulse, why shouldn't you use your thumb?
10. When the patient has NO pulse, it is a sign of?
11. Where is the best place to check skin temperature?
12. What is resting pulse for an adolescent?

13. What is resting pulse for 5-12 year old children?
14. What is resting pulse for children up to 5?
15. What is resting pulse for newborns?
16. What is resting pulse for an adult?
17. What could pale skin represent?
18. If the patient has dilated, unresponsive pupils that can be a sign of?
19. What is important to look for while observing a patients respiration?
20. Respiratory character includes?
21. Respiratory rate is classified as?
22. While checking for a pulse it is important to get a reading for how long?
23. What are the two main places to check for a pulse?
24. What would be considered a normal resting pulse for adolescents?
25. Where is the best place to check skin temperature?